Itinerary Suggestions

Walking - 5 nights, Comfort

3 nights Reilly's Rock / 2 nights Mkhaya Game Reserve

*Mkhaya Bush Walks require minimum 4 & maximum 6 people, 13+ years on trail

Day 1
Arrive Milwane Wildlife Sanctuary & check in to Reilly's Rock Hilltop Lodge or Down Gran's Self-Catering Cottage.
Purchase a map at Sangweni Gate or Reception.
Spend the last golden hours exploring the Reilly's Rock Trails on Milwane Hill, winding through the Botanical Gardens and rare and threatened antelope.

Day 2
Rise for an early breakfast and explore Milwane's self-guided walking trails. Pack your map, water and snacks and head out on the western Reilly's Rock Trails, connect to the Hippo Trail via the Summit Trail and spend the morning in the southern section of Milwane, along the Mhlambanyatsi River. Extending onto the Sondzela Trail adds a good 5-6km, before returning to Rest Camp for lunch.
After lunch, follow the Shallows Trail, onto the Hippo Trail and back to Reilly's Rock for well deserved afternoon relaxation.
Distance ±10km, duration 4-5 hrs, moderate terrain, with steeper climb to Reilly's Rock.

Day 3
Another early breakfast powers a day on Nyonyane Mountain.
From the Reilly's Rock Trails, join the Summit Trail. From here, chose to do the Machobane Trails (circular), linking back onto the Summit Trail, or head straight to the Summit. Distance can be anything from 10-15km on the mountain, from Reilly's, with some steep climbs. Allow time to sit on top of Nyonyane and survey the 360 view. Its always an option to meet friends at Nyagato View Point for a picnic and drive home.
A day on the mountain is always rewarded with a quiet evening in the Botanical Garden.
Dinner around the fire.

Day 4
A leisurely breakfast – remember it is a holiday!
If desired, a last short walk off the Milwane Hill onto the Donga Route Trail, which requires scaling a klipspringer-proof style. This a circular route explores the old tin mines. Watch for hippo in the little dam, and give him graceful latitude. Circle back to Reilly's Rock along the road through the Roan Antelope area. This route provides about 1 hour of gentle walking. An option is to book an Esitjeni Village Walk (2 hrs, min 4 pax) which departs from Sangweni Gate.
Return to accommodation, pack a small overnight backpack for Mkhaya. freshen up and check out.
Depart Milwane, via the Malkerns Craft Route and stopping for an early lunch.
Drive to Mkhaya Game Reserve, arriving at 16h00, meet your guide and enjoy a short game drive to Stone Camp before dark.
Dinner & Accommodation at Stone Camp (no electricity)

Day 5
Early morning coffee and wake up call in your rooms.
Head out on a 3-4hr bush walk in big game area, with great birdlife. The terrain is flat, through riverine forests and adjacent woodland. A packed breakfast will be enjoyed en-route.
Return to Stone Camp, with time to freshen up before lunch.
Afternoon at leisure, with evening game drive

Day 6
Early Game Drive returning for breakfast
Transfer out for 10h00
